

Carolyn Fiscus: Brief Bio

Carolyn Fiscus moved full time to Orcas Island in 2014 after retiring as a Nurse Practitioner/Nurse Midwife with Kaiser Permanente in Portland, Oregon where she delivered babies in the Kaiser Hospital and had a clinic practice in Women's Health. Since retiring, she has served on San Juan County's Human Services Advisory Board, the Orcas Medical Foundation Board, and the Board of the Orcas Community Resource Center (OCRC) where she served as President. She also trained and served as an EMT at Orcas Fire and Rescue until OCRC's work took precedence.
